

Shakespeare - "Macbeth"

Across

- 2. To deceive or trick someone by charm
- 3. Characterized by or possessing virtue or moral excellence
- 5. A covering that darkens or obscures
- 9. One that indicates or foreshadows what is to come
- 11. Soon, Shortly or at once

- 12. One who supports and adheres to another
- 13. From this time; from now on
- 14. Mental suffering caused by loss
- 15. A person holding land of the king

Down

- 1. To Award compensation

- 4. Producing or yielding in abundance
- 6. To command (someone) not to do something
- 7. To rub with oil during a religious ceremony
- 8. With a purposeful or sincere intent
- 10. To battle or brawl

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------|----------|-----------|------------|-----------|
| Avon | Broil | Anoint | Minion | Thane |
| Forbid | Earnest | Plenteous | Recompense | Harbinger |
| Sorrow | virtuous | Pall | Hence | Beguile |